

Sherry Hemingway, Rotary PR, 776-9209
April 28, 2009

Dazzle – A Celebration of Giving in Style

“Dazzle – A Celebration of Giving in Style,” a runway fashion show of local retailers, a showcase of local designers and a luncheon to benefit Rotary Club of Morgan Hill, is set for Friday, May 29 at Clos LaChance Winery.

The event will kick off with a champagne reception and Raffle Dazzle, a series of nine gift and interior design displays each valued at more than $750.

Designs are being created by Brotin Designs, Carol Spence Interior Design, The Colory, Consignment Living, Elaine Ditmore, Johnson Garden Center, lu·lu Pom, Morgan Hill Interiors, Naturescape Environmental Design and Stems Floral Boutique. Raffle tickets are available to the general public at Rosy’s at the Beach restaurant in Morgan Hill.

The runway fashion show and luncheon catered by Chef Charles Lewis will be on the Tapestry Lawn at Clos LaChance, overlooking the scenic Hayes Valley.

The parade of local fashions comes from local retailers including Bbeauty Designs, Doncaster, Go Run Sports, Michelina’s, Nicolette Couture Bridal Boutique, Robert C. Crowe, OD, Royal Tailoring & Tuxedos, Silpada Designs, The Jewel Box and Tryst Fashion Apparel. Cherisse’s Hair Salon will provide hair and makeup styling. There will also be a ballroom dancing exhibition featuring Memories Dance Palace in Morgan Hill and Shall We Dance in Pacific Grove.

The event will conclude with a vendor trunk show.

Individual tickets at $65 and tables for 10 are available online at www.dazzlemh.org or at (408) 482-7649. Seating is limited and the event is expected to sell out.

Major sponsors are Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. and RNP Advisory Services Inc. Co-sponsors are Anaerobe Systems, David & Sandy de la Cuesta, Johnson Lumber ACE Hardware, Robert Moulthrop, DDS, Rusconi Foster, Saint Louise Regional Hospital & Thomas and Morgan Hill Times.

Event Chair is Sandy de la Cuesta and Fashion Production Chair is Carol Carr.

Dazzle helps support the local service projects and charitable giving programs of Rotary Club of Morgan Hill, a service organization of Rotary International which has served the Morgan Hill community for more than 50 years. The Club’s local service focuses on community, youth and seniors. In addition to numerous service projects, last year’s local philanthropic giving exceeded $50,000.

#

P.O. Box 283 Morgan Hill, CA 95038
www.morganhillrotary.org
www.dazzlemh.org